How do you feel ACP would benefit from your involvement on the National Board of Directors?

Broad practitioner experience as a consultant for over 20 years. Experience running a multi-million dollar company, experience at upper management level of Fortune 500 company. I have implemented programs in non-traditional ways that has provided new insight into organizational needs that can benefit others. My career has always had a component of looking for new ways of doing things and I would bring that drive for growth and continued development to a position on the BoD.
